THE BAND GOES TO HILO

WILL PLAY THERE ON THE FOURTH.Governor Dole Writes to Acting Governor Cooper—Is Much Improved and Has Been to Puuwa.A letter from Governor Dole to Acting Governor Cooper was read at this morning's meeting of the executive council. The governor stated that he was much improved in health as a result of his outdoor life. He was about to leave Hilo where he had been stopping, to go to Puuwa. The governor stated that he would remain at the latter place until the end of the two months' vacation he formerly announced his intention of taking.The council decided that the band shall go to Hilo for the Fourth of July.
A letter was received from the Hilo Fourth of July committee stating that Hilo wanted the band and was willing to pay for it. The committee guaranteed all expenses. It was decided that as Hilo has not had the band much lately and as Honolulu hadn't put up any program requiring a band, Captain Berger and his musicians should go to Hilo, at the expense of Hilo, to perform on the glorious fourth.On applications J. H. Kihel and L.
Kumaili were restored to civil rights.
The latter was also pardoned, his term in Hilo jail being about up, and Sheriff Andrews having endorsed his petition on the ground of unusually good behavior. Kihel had been in prison for practicing medicine without a license.

AUTOMOBILES SHUT DOWN.

Waiting Until Better Service Can be Given.The automobile company has temporarily shut down and no more conveyances will be run for at least a month, if the public desires to be taken to the theater or calling it will have to fall back on old reliable Dobbin.
The hum and buzz and rattle of the auto will be heard no more in Honolulu until well along into summer. The cause of the company closing down its business is due entirely to the poor qualities of batteries sent with the machines.The machines were purchased from the Woods Motor Vehicle Company of Chicago. The batteries sent with them were guaranteed to run 20 miles.
In practically every instance the batteries have proved inadequate to the demands and have fallen far short of the guarantee. The first batteries which came were badly packed and damaged so that new ones had to be secured. The second installment of batteries proved poor and the automobile company soon found that it could not give satisfactory service. The machines would frequently get stalled and in adding causing annoyance to the patron, the service of a live auto would be required to bring in the disabled machine. The batteries proved very unsatisfactory with the result that the company has been able to operate only 7 or 10 machines for the last two months.It was finally decided to shut down until matters could be satisfactorily arranged. "The automobile company has decided to close down temporarily," said J. B. Atherton, president of the company this morning, "because we found that we could not give as good a service as we considered necessary.
We have guaranteed that every battery will run 20 miles, but these batteries proved defective. As the result we have a class of cars with new batteries or money indemnity against the Woods company of Chicago. Mr. Grant the general manager of the local company, is now in Chicago and will shortly present this claim. He writes us that the indications are good for favorable action by the company. We will have to shut down a month or two until we can secure new and stronger batteries."SHIPPING INTELLIGENCE

CONSPIRACY TO BE AIRED

CASES OF CUNNINGHAM AND MORGAN CALLED.Will be Heard This Afternoon Before Judge Wilcox—Court Denies Lawyers Privilege of Sitting on Tables.The conspiracy cases against W. M.
Cunningham and J. A. Morgan charged with trying to have "Dope" administered to Prince David's father was called in Judge Wilcox's court this morning and continued until 1:30 this afternoon.Tom Fitch and Mr. Stanley appeared for Cunningham and Lorrin Andrews for Morgan while W. A. Kinney appeared as special counsel for the prosecution. Mr. Stanley stated that his side was ready to proceed with the case. Mr. Andrews was not ready. He said that there were three important witnesses necessary to the defense of his client who were now absent at Hilo attending the races. Mr. Andrews regarded it as very probable that they could be secured as witnesses if he but be allowed a continuance.Mr. Kinney insisted that such a motion be made in writing with the further statement of what the defense expected to prove by the three missing witnesses.
Mr. Andrews assented to this. Judge Wilcox said that the jurisdiction of his court did not extend to Hilo. Mr. Andrews admitted this but said that he was sure the men would come after the races. The court said he was inclined to grant the motion but the matter would be continued until the afternoon in order to give Mr. Andrews time in which to file the motion and statement.Mr. Stanley demurred to continuing the case against Cunningham. They were ready he asserted and what was more, they did not wish to have a joint hearing with Morgan. Mr. Kinney said that he did not see how the examination could well be conducted separately inasmuch as both were charged jointly with the alleged crime.
The court remarked that it would be time enough to consider this matter when the cases came up so he granted the continuance until the afternoon.It was during the talk of Mr. Andrews that Judge Wilcox indulged in a quiet little fling at the rulings of various circuit judges of the territory.
Mr. Andrews happened to rest his leg over a table and the court remarked:
"Get off of the table Mr. Andrews, we can stand hearings and shirt sleeves in this court but we can't quite stand the attorneys sitting on the table."

BASEBALL.

The second game of the League series was played Saturday afternoon between the Honolulu Athletic Club team and the Maile Ilumas. The former won 11 to 7. But for the fact that Richardson pitched wild in the first inning and four errors by Robertson, the Maile Ilumas would undoubtedly have won the game as they held their opponents down to two runs after the first inning.
The following is the official score by N. Jackson, official scorer:
